The gold certificate was used from 1863 to 1933 (although there is the rare 1934 issue) in the United States as a form of paper currency. Each certificate gave its holder title to a corresponding amount of gold coin at the statutory rate of $20.67 per troy ounce established by the Coinage Act of 1834.

Gold Certificates. Collectors who have an interest in monetary history, especially American monetary history, should have gold certificates in their collections. The certificates were first authorized in 1863 in the middle of the Civil War, but it seems as though they were not printed until 1865. The first certificates were not printed with dates and were instead hand dated upon issue.
