The Story of Richard Wurmbrand "God, I know surely that You do not exist. But if perchance You exist, which I contest, it is not my duty to believe in You; it is Your duty to reveal Yourself to me." 1 The young Jewish atheist who uttered that flippant prayer was Richard Wurmbrand, born in 1909 in Bucharest, Romania. Little did he know how completely God would answer him, call him to a life of service to Christ, and use him to raise up one of the strongest ministries in the world today ...

She said, "Let us see what Richard has brought for me." Then I just heard, "Aaaaaaa, aaaaaahhh — I'm gonna kill him. I'll kill him!" Richard laughed and laughed. That wasn't the end of Richard's excretory shenanigans. He had a bizarre affinity for sharing his derriere droppings, some of which he gave to his mother.

96 quotes from Richard Wurmbrand: 'It was strictly forbidden to preach to other prisoners. It was understood that whoever was caught doing this received a severe beating. A number of us decided to pay the price for the privilege of preaching, so we accepted their [the communists'] terms. It was a deal: we preached and they beat us. We were happy preaching.
