The concept of the avant garde is highly contested, whether one consigns it to history or claims it for present-day or future uses. The first volume of 'The Idea of the Avant Garde--And What It Means Today' (ISBN 9780719096914) provided a lively forum on the kinds of radical art theory and partisan practices that are possible in today's world of global art markets and creative industry entrepreneurialism. This second volume presents the work of another fifty artists and writers, exploring the diverse ways that avant-gardism develops reflexive and experimental combinations of aesthetic and political praxis. The manifest strategies, temporalities, and genealogies of avant-garde art and politics are expressed through an international, intergenerational, and interdisciplinary convocation of ideas that covers the fields of film, video, architecture, visual art, art activism, literature, poetry, theater, performance, intermedia, and music.

Winner of the 2014 Guild of Food Writers Award for Cookery Book of the Year. James Morton was surely the people's favourite to win 2012's Great British Bake Off series - with his Fairisle jumpers and eccentric showstoppers, this soft-spoken Scottish medical student won the viewers' hearts if not the trophy. James's real passion is bread-making. He is fascinated by the science of it, the taste of it, the making of it. And in Brilliant Bread he communicates that passion to everyone, demystifying the often daunting process of "proper" bread making. James uses supermarket flour and instant yeast - you can save money by making your own bread. You don't even have to knead! It just takes a bit of patience and a few simple techniques. Using step by step photos, James guides the reader through the how-to of dough making and shaping, with recipes ranging from basic loaves through flatbreads, sourdoughs, sweet doughs, buns, doughnuts, focaccia and pretzels. Inspiring and simple to follow, with James's no-nonsense advice and tips, this book will mean you never buy another sliced white loaf again.

The best-selling author of Eat, Cheat, and Melt the Fat Away presents one hundred all-new recipes for delicious, easy-to-prepare, and healthful dishes, all of which can be prepared in thirty minutes or less. Reprint. 250,000 first printing.

Winner of the PEN/Bellwether Prize for Fiction: An "audacious and compelling" novel of one man trying to outrun the horrors of the Rwandan genocide (The Washington Post). A Kansas City Star, Seattle Times, and BookBrowse Best of the Year Pick Running the Rift follows the progress of Jean Patrick Nkuba from the day he knows that running will be his life to the moment he must run to save his life. A naturally gifted athlete, he sprints over the thousand hills of Rwanda and dreams of becoming his country's first Olympic medal winner in track. But Jean Patrick is a Tutsi in a world that has become increasingly restrictive and violent for his people. As tensions mount between the Hutu and Tutsi, he holds fast to his dream that running might deliver him, and his people, from the brutality around them. Winner of the PEN/Bellwether Prize for Socially Engaged Fiction, Naomi Benaron has written a stunning and gorgeous novel that--through the eyes of one unforgettable boy--explores a country's unraveling, its tentative new beginning, and the love that binds its people together. "A profound display of imagination and empathy. Benaron writes like Jean Patrick runs, with the heart of a lion." --The Dallas Morning News "A novel full of unspeakable strife but also joy, humor, and love." --O, The Oprah Magazine "This is truly fearless writing: ambitious, beautiful, unapologetically passionate." --Barbara Kingsolver, New York Times--bestselling author "A culturally rich and unflinching story of resilience and resistance." --Chicago Tribune "Benaron accomplishes the improbable feat of wringing genuine loveliness from unspeakable horror."--Publishers Weekly (starred review)
