Bible Fun For Kids: Run the Race

This kind of reminds me of what the Bible says in Hebrews 12:1. It says that we should put off all the things that weigh us down and run the race that God has for us. I would probably run a lot faster if I laid all these things down! We can run the path God has for us faster and better if we lay down the things that weight us down.

Bible Verse Games: Run the Race - Learning Hebrews 12:1

There is a question about whether these witnesses are watching us from heaven as we run the race; or, more in line with the meaning of the word witness, do we look to their testimony as an example of how to run the race? There is no indication in the Bible (unless it is here) that those in heaven are watching us on earth. Probably, with the race metaphor, the picture here is that as we run the race, along the route we encounter the Old Testament saints (and, by extension, other heroes of the ...

Best-selling author, speaker, and activist Christine Caine reminds readers that as Christians they are born to win. Their purpose is to run in the divine race of life until the day they cross the finish line and hear the words of their father, "Well done, good and faithful servant." Based on her bestselling book Unstoppable, Christine Caine encourages readers with the truth that they are assured of victory. Each person has a race to run in life. It's a race with eternal implications. But life is sometimes difficult. The task seems to tough, the path too perilous, the race too rigorous. In Run the Race!, Christine Caine reminds Christians that they know the outcome of the race before it begins, and that knowledge should revolutionize the way they run their race, the way they live their lives. She entralls readers with stories and timeless principles that inspire people of faith to run the race of their life, receiving the baton of faith in sync with their winning team--the body of Christ. God has chosen them, prepared them and placed them on His team. They are unstoppable.

In Jesten's study from Bible college to seminary, and serving in local churches and ministries for over forty years, she has observed many Christians who have not been able to grow in their faith and walk with the Lord. This book is a call back to the basics of Christian life. Jesten begins by laying a foundation of the Word, precept upon precept, and line upon line—which she calls "connecting the dots." Jesten also covers how we can get our hearts and minds ready to receive the Word. And finally, she teaches on taking the keys of the Word and applying them in our everyday lives.
