The Great Race is a Native American legend surrounding the Red Racetrack, a ring shaped depression surrounding the interior of the Black Hills. The legend tells the story of when buffalo and man raced each other to establish order in the universe. The stories differ from tribe to tribe but the constant theme is that man established supremacy over the buffalo. This story is also associated with the origins of the Sun Dance and the Medicine Lodge. Taking place in July, Sun Dance is four to eight d

The Great Race provides a story to establish how each of the twelve animals won a place in the twelve-year cycle. They did it through winning the Great Race. I found it interesting that felines are represented by the tiger and not the cat. The cat slept through the race and thus did not make it into the top twelve.

The History of The Great Race Great events don't happen by accident and they certainly don't happen in the blink of an eye. It takes a lot of work to develop, organize and run an intricate event such as The Great Race, and it took a lot of work behind the scenes to get it off the ground, when Tom McRae and Norman Miller did just that in 1983.
